Shri Amarjit Singh Chandioke, Senior Advocate appeared for the Complainant and submits that all these firms are actually accounting firms, however, are engaged in doing law practice.

The Council is of the view that in the meantime, all the firms be directed to give the list of all the advocates, who have been engaged by them, in any capacity, in any of their offices at any place and they are also directed to refrain themselves from indulging in any such practice until further orders.

In the interest of justice, adjourned for 12.07.2019.
